DEER DROPPINGS

Run # 865 – October 1st

Hares : Curb Crawler & Broken Boner

Location: Watipi Campground, Blackfalds

ON ON & Prelube: Resolve

Scribe: Chips A Whore

AKA to me: The I think I've been here before and I'm not certain of the nightmare about to ensue Run

Not only is The Facebook good for watching Cat videos it will also tell you the location of the upcoming runs. This week run is being hared by Curb Crawler and a mysterious Co-hare!!! The location is in Blackfalds and the directions on Facebook were over a paragraph long so I chose to not read them. I skipped to the end to read the critical details like where the prelube and ON ON were which both were at Resolve. A secondary post on the Facebook told us about Sexual stimulation, women getting wet or something and had some big words but again it was a little long for me to read so I only read the first bit but bottom line I went to the run expecting to see wet women baring full frontal nudity.

Pole Her Express was so kind to offer Pucker Sucker, Dripping Wet Gap and myself a ride to the run, which we graciously accepted as I didn't read the directions to the run and this would allow me to not have to. The ride out was a lot of talk of thongs, blowjobs and tampons, which I assume is all that girls talk about?? We arrived to a full prelube, which included the likes of Sir Mobey's of Dickus, Just Jenn, Cheap and Easy, Blowin Ho's, Pleasure Chest, Sir Cums A Lot, Hymen Trouble, Curb Crawler, Broken Boner and Can't Cum Now. Shortly after we arrived Curb Crawler and Broken Boner stood up to go drop off the hash hold, so the mysterious co hare was Broken Boner.....hmmmmm. I did not bring my headlamp and felt it would likely be dark around 10pm when Boner's runs would normally end. I had been to this location before but could not recall its specifics. Pucker Sucker reminded me of the chest high deep bogs and swamps and people losing clothing and shoes on our last outing to this location. In hindsight I should have had someone read me the run details off the Facebook.

Arriving at the run I realized we had a great turnout of hashers who knew nothing about the bogs and swamps but just came out for a great run in great weather. I saw Wet Denim, Cum See my Box, Sweaty Balls, Just Rose, Swings Both Ways, Caulk Belly (and Nipple Biter), Crash Test Rummy, I'm Cumming and Slippery When Wet. If I missed your name on here (which is possible) I apologize. Please send me an email concerning and I will “reward” you at the next hash event.

Circle up is called and no virgins??? We have had virgins at both our last two runs so WTF! Everyone introduces themselves and the hares come in to show us the markings. Most are pretty standard except one that is a mix of a check back and a false trail and a checking?? I never heard the true explanation of what to do when I saw this but I figured when I did I was likely going to be fucked and this is exactly what happened. Curb Crawler also let us know that he “Rubbed one out on an ant hill” while setting trail, which may have been a little too much info there buddy. Off we go on arrow and shortly came across a marking we were not shown in circle. It looked sort of like a checking with a hook on it and like a child was trying to draw a dick with nuts on the end of it. Most runners sat and stared at it for about a minute before we were saved by our hare Broken Boner who guided us through a ground level hole in the fence.

Running down the bumpy field along the fence line on a well-marked trail we get down to our first check. Runners were off in all directions and ON ON calls from all directions. A really nice mixup to start us all off, ‘insert rude about the hares’. We find trail and almost immediately we are in the bog..... Traversing across rotted old logs and getting our feet wet. I told Curb about this after and he seemed perplexed and honestly thought there was no water to be had, there isn't Curb when you set trail in hip waders. Once across we were on a path, path being a very loose term. I felt like someone set a compass reading through thick dense bush and said “dat-a-way” going through dense heavy bush and occasionally sinking into swamp like waters.

MANY MANY people fell on this treacherous trail and many of them fell multiple times. Crash Test Rummy set a personal best for himself only falling two times on this run, congrats!! Pleasure Chest and Dripping Wet Gap 3-4 times each, Cant Cum Now I heard almost died and may have actually fallen so hard that he actually almost flipped right over back to his feet. There were more people that fell than people who did not fall. We were hopping fences and running blindly as it started to get dark. The trail was a great trail all in all and we haven't seen a ton of true shiggy runs like this one this year. Kinda late in the season but a great run on a night where the weather cooperated. We honed in on the hash hold and were promptly paired with the walkers. The Hash hold consisted of basically everything except wedding cake. You would not be able to Piss and Moan there wasn't something there you didn't like. Pepperoni, Chips, chocolate bars, cinnamon buns, brownies.....WAIT!!! Where's the fucking licorice????? Tsk tsk ;)

ON IN called and we trekked back to the start which was the same distance as the run itself. Time to bring out the headlamps people. The Walkers all arrived like zombies with Boner's headlights behind them looking like the Walking Dead.

Circle was called and many many punishments were given out. The hares of course for setting such a fantastic trail for us. Blowin Ho's was brought in for being "THE SHIT" holder. He was promptly brought back in for wearing inappropriate hash attire and one more time later for calling people by their boring names. The 16 people who fell were brought in for a community charge, which basically destroyed the integrity of our circle. Curb Crawler was brought in for using Egyptian Hieroglyphics as trail marking; we found out later he may have been drinking Pilsner while setting trail with Broken Boner.

Just Jenn and Just Rose were downed for being so quiet and not doing anything of interest that would spark something for us to name them

Blowin Ho's came in to try and charge someone a few different times but was removed each time when he just couldn't spit it out, as well he tried to charge Curb Crawler with the exact same punishment I just gave him. I'd recommend showing up to Prelube a few hours later next time Blowin. Pleasure Chest did not charge anyone this time which was odd, maybe this "No Drinking" thing is going to her head... we hope you get better soon. ON ON returned back to Resolve where Pucker Sucker experienced Skunky Beer, Rock hard Roast Beef Stuffed Yorkshire Pudding thingies whereas most hashers attending enjoying good food (I sampled some of a few peoples), good drink (I had a fantastic spicy Caesar) and great company.

Great Run Curb Crawler. Great support from the many hashers in attendance, and thanks to everyone for doing stupid shit making it easy to distribute down downs
