A sea of red flowed into Sunnybrook as hashers prepared for the “Will you be my Valentines Run”. The red color well in evidence so there was no nudity or body parts exposed during circle up, that would come later. And no, Broken Boner’s legs don’t count as exposed body parts anymore! 3 virgins graced us with their presence, Steven and the lovely couple Steve and Larissa.

Volunteers were recruited by Chips A Whore for a special assignment so Cum Honor and Drippy stepped up for the runners while Blowin Ho’s and Curb Crawler did for the walkers. The 4 of them were handed large Valentines themed balloons with a flashing light inside to carry during the run. Markings were explained to our virgins and off the runners went as Cheap & Easy lead the walkers away.

Trail was easy to see as it had been freshly reset after the morning snow and soon we were running through Red Deer’s beautiful trail system. I knew I shouldn’t have had that 3rd beer at prelube but I just couldn’t let Curb Crawler drink by himself and was now paying the price. Sir Cums A Lot and I found ourselves at the back of the pack (Surprise! Surprise!) and somehow avoided the first long false trail. We took off on the trail and found checks, false trails and check backs aplenty.

We even manage to see the back of the walking pack a couple of times but we followed trail markings and never managed to catch up to them. Rumor is that the hare was cracking the whip pretty good and had the walkers working up a sweat.

During that time, the main runner’s group was being questioned by passersby as to why they were carrying flashing balloons. Guess what? They knew about the Hash House Harriers! We’ll hopefully see them at a run soon.

Somehow Sir Cums and I missed an important trail marking, a small X with the word “Boo!” underneath. Guess we had found ourselves a long false trail after all. We turned back to look for the true trail as all good hashers would do and got reunited with the main group. More and more trails awaited us until we finally ended up running uphill along Selkirk Blvd. That’s about the time when Pucker Sucker started seeing some imaginary trail and we lost sight of her for a while. We eventually caught up to her just before we got to the Hash Hold.

Our joy soon turned to sorrow as Chips forgot the code to the vehicle and we could only drool at the goodies and beer stashed in the back of the SUV. That’s when started the frantic search for any signs of the walkers. Well, they had Cum See My Box and Cum Liquor Snatch in the group so we knew they were cuming.

They showed up shortly afterwards and we were soon stuffing our faces in homemade red velvet cupcakes and weird flavored chips. Great beer selection was enjoyed by all until tragedy struck again! Pucker had lost her vagina! Don't ask me how, but she manage to find it in somewhere on the ground and proceeded to immediately put the dirty thing back into place. Questions about portable vaginas should be directed to Beast Infection.

Back to circle up, we're once again waiting for some of the walkers. Looks like they took the long way back and we eventually saw Hymen Trouble and the rest of the crew coming around the corner of the school. Down Downs were first given to the hares and virgins. Sir Cums a Lot was the deserving recipient of the pink Piss and Moan shirt for complaining so loudly about trail markings being too small.

Him and I both received prizes for finding the special run marking and I totally lucked out with the box of Turtles as he's now the proud owner of the Fat Girls Porn video! It's baaaaack! Cum Honor got punished for only God knows what and it must've tasted something awful as he had to drink multiple shots of JD at the On On to wash off the taste. The rest of us settled for less potent drinks and some great food to finish off a great evening.
