Hare(s): Slippery When Wet & Dripping Wet Gap

Location: Father Henri Voisin School, Clearview

Prelube: Canadian Brewhouse

On On: Mr Mikes

Scribe: Pleasure Chest

Spring was in the air and you could feel the energy and excitement as hashers started to circle up. Those are usually signs of fun times to cum and my instincts kept telling me this would be a good run to scribe. All my doubts evaporated when I heard someone say they were going to fake it the virgin (Mustang Sally was that you?) I was sold.

Aneeda Dick couldn't be there for her run but Slippery When Wet, our replacement hare, seemed to have things under control...until she admitted forgetting the flour in her car and had nothing to show the markings with. Poor Joel the virgin looked confused as Slippery use the back of my notepad to show him the basics.

Soon we were off with Dripping Wet Gap keeping a watchful eye over the runners. We took a short jaunt into Michener Center, quickly finding false trails and checks. We soon met with the walkers and the hares exchanged comments as to how fast the runners were moving along. As usual, Chips a Whore and Sir Cums a Lot were seen playing in the puddles, both miserably failing at splashing anyone.

Runners were huffing and puffing as the walkers took their sweet time. Some like Slippery, Don't Know Dick and Kira were watering the flowers and mooning the unfortunate people sitting out on their decks while Dirty Pole was busy admiring a putting green, which he says is much lower maintenance than Pole Her Express.

Runner were making their way back across 67th by then with Broken Boner and Mobey's Dick playing frogger. We soon came to the Hash Hold and started enjoying well deserved refreshments. We then noticed the walkers in the distance heading in the opposite direction. Looks like Slippery had already forgotten how fast the runners had been moving on trail so we called out to them and they quickly gave up on that extra walking loop to join us at the Hash Hold instead.

We must've been quite the sight in the middle of the Clearview market parking lot. We were easily spotted by fellow hashers passing by and had the pleasant surprise of having Straddle Puss and IKilKenny stopped by for a quick chat.

Back at circle, Kira gave kudos to Wet Denim for having Caesars in the swill while Dirty Pole was discussing the excellent cider served in the Cayman Island, which unfortunately the virgin admitted to never having.

There were talks of Broken Boner walking out on his tab and Slippery being stuck with the bill and of Mustang Sally having excessive wood and her son Steve saying something about giving you a load. Hares were rewarded and the virgin was brought in for a drink.

There were some issues with our birthday entertainer Mitz Gaynor as she was a bit on the soft side. Sir Cums a Lot tried giving her a blow job but failed miserably. Hymen Trouble must've squeezed everything out of him this week as sex is a great cure for hangovers. Chips gave her a blow as well but without much more success.

Dirty Pole was the first birthday celebrated and decided to take it in the rear while Slippery When Wet took it in the front. Steve and Joel were punished for multiple offenses such as stretching, using technology on trail and very competitive behavior during the run.

The highlight of the night was when Joel was brought in once again and got named for never having "Caymen Cider". We had a great On On at Mr Mikes with management giving us a free round of shots! Cheap & Easy and Blowin' Ho's joined us for a drink and I even went home with some guy's Carhart jacket. I should probably check with Doggy Style if he went home half-naked. Great run and lots of fun had by all.
