Hares: Blowin Ho's and Cheap & Easy

Location: Red Deer College

Prelube: Tilted Kilt

On On: Hare's abode – 38 Wilkins Green

Scribe: Chips A Whore

I'm elated, ecstatic and so full of emotion it is hard to describe
I have once again been rewarded with the privilege of Scribe.
As far as scribes goes I may not be as "Elite" as some of the best.
But my scribe is in early to not feel the wrath of P Chest ;)

Prelube at Tilted Kilt and all the regulars are here.
To enjoy good conversation and slam back $4 beers
Red Deer College is the location of this awesome run
Have not ran here for a while so I expect it will be fun

The hares this week are Cheap and Easy and Blowin Ho's
When it comes to this area they are considered the pros
Second week in a row we had 3 brand new virgins attend
May have to start rewarding hashers who recruit their friends

Mustang Sally brought Greg who has a hash name
I've never met him before and hope he does Cum again
Oh hey Pecker Checker wow it's great to see you
Haven't seen you in so long some people thought you were new

Back at Hash headquarters last week I read a complaint
The Hash is only meant to be fun so it almost made me faint
It appears Slippery thought the circles were long and I was being mean
She's been here a year thinks she knows the routine

So at the start of the run I told her there's no need to groan
Then gave panties to wear and a dirty old shirt called the Piss & Moan
Blowin came in to show markings we would see on this track
WTF a double arrow means blow through all check backs??

You can see very odd markings while attending the hash
But the ones he showed us were reminiscent of Crash
Putting marking like this on trail is pretty risqué
If G-Spot was here what the hell would she say?

This scribes already long and has been quite the tale
But I've barely begun and now onto the trail
The trail was quite nice lots of trees and some creeks
Lots of uneven ground some hills more like peaks

Pucker and I hit a T intersection each one way to go
I let her pick her path; she picked wrong, just so you know
I heard battling ON ONs both of us must be on the right path
Some should have followed me too; it's just simple math

I found myself far ahead as everyone followed her lead
No one trusts me I suppose as I ran through the trees
So for most of this run I ran all alone
Checking checks by myself, finding trail on my own

I will say it was quite lonely when no one hears your calls
No one to chitchat with or to poke fun at you when you fall
Eventually I saw humans to join me on trail
Oops that not a hasher but some random homeless male

Once everyone caught up we ran down 40th avenue
Blowin wearing a R shirt from Melissa's which is a giant Taboo
Running for an eternity we came across a Beer Near
These hares have no concept of this term it would appear

We ran for 20 more minutes before the hash hold
The walkers already there and their beers no longer cold
A great chill Hash Hold was just what we needed
The run was great, people were happy, that means they succeeded

On In is called and we heard back to the start
Punishments to ensue I'm just doing my part
It was awesome; Haberdashery was out for shirts sales to amass
All the while Twisted Spritzers giving away her shirts and cutting my grass

3 virgins were downed and it was beer they drank
I know that's there's "3" and should have given the plank
We toasted the visitors and the ones we haven't seen in some time
Russel for his birthday, and a few other crimes.

Blowin Ho's had the audacity to wear prohibited attire
There's no saving you know a punishment is required
A competitive shirt and some shiny new shoes
Off they come big boy so that I can fill them with booze

A sleeve on your arm and a shoe in your hand
You know very fucking well that this shit is banned
We all laughed at you as you drank and we sang a song
From the spillage on your shirt you might be doing it wrong

I had to pull you back in for a charge that you got
So from the other shoe you did drink as they are newly bought

This was Twisted Spritzers last night before she leaves town
We sang happy Trails as she drank her down down
We will miss you and are super happy that you could make it out
It won't be long before we see you again there's no doubt

The Pink Piss and Moan Shirt has been missing and Drippy had it last
I put the pressure on her and now I feel like an ass
Turns out that prick Sir Cums has the shirt but it's still not returned
This whole ordeal left Drippy quite upset and concerned

Concerned might be wrong I think she was quite peeved
So she for some reason thought that I should be sleeved
But me the RA what a concept to conceive
But always know what I dish it out I sure can receive

I put on the sleeve, my sleeve skills to convey
Little do they know I drink all my beers at home this way

Announcements were done "the ONON's at 38 Wilkins Green"
Burgers on the menu and other fine cuisine
You make a mean burger and they were enjoyed by everyone
Had all the making of a fantastic ONON

Rochelle ended up with seeds all over her back, sometimes that's how it goes
Don't blame me for putting them there....just don't lay on tomatoes?
What a great run and great group out tonight
No licorice at the hash hold but that is all right

You guys make me laugh and your fun to hang with even when you critique
I always listen, ignore then do the same shit next week....

ON ON ALL
