SEPTEMBER 9-11

Twas the night before Friday, and all through the lot
The hashers were stirring, and laughing a lot

The group was all gathered, with style and flare
In hopes they were successful in deciphering the hare

The hashers were all restless, with beer in their hands
In hopes that the hare would soon show them the plan

The flour was dropped, and explained to the group
While harassment and banter made this a hoot

When we all set off there arose such a clatter
I guess the false trail a many dreams did shatter

Down a hill set the runners the walkers they did pass
Sir Cums it seems made women wet with a splash

Ten walkers set out, some said rather slow
But only 4 were brave – across the river they did go

Six walkers turn wankers detour they did take Too delicate and scared they were of the river wake

The walkers upon a dingy on a bank
With Dirty Pole in attendance for that we do thank

The runners seem lost for a long time we did wait
I hope they didn't lose some that would be an awful fate

The cold beverages seemed to revive
I guess even the last runners will surly survive

After breath is caught, popcorn and licorice is gone
On In is called and we all move on

Circle up is buzzing with shared punishments, beers and songs
Good thing no one was brought to tears and it didn't last too long

Twenty-six hashers came out in the evening light
Happy Thursday to all – Hashers good night!
