“Never Let the Truth or Libel Laws
Stand in the Way of a Good Story”

Run #938 – Feb 23rd

Hare(s): Deep Throat & Dripping Wet Gap (filling in for Urine In My Way due to broken ankle)

Location: Three Mile Bend

Prelube: Canadian Brew House

On On: Sam's North

Scribe: Deep Throat

We started at the dead end by Three Mile Bend; I do believe it's been a while since we have been down this dark road that leads to nowhere.

At circle up, we were joined by our fellow hashers, Wee Little Bladder, Slippery When Wet, Doggy Style, Chips A Whore, Dripping Wet Gap, Cum See My Box, Don't Know Dick, Pleasure Chest, Sir Cums, Hymen Trouble, Nicole, Captain Piss Up, and Flyin' Hawaiian.

Chips makes his announcements before he brings Captain's daughter, Jazmine, (Flyin' Hawaiian) into the circle so we can introduce ourselves with our naughty hash names. Hares are brought into circle up where I lay down some markings of the run with flour, however, to Dripping Wet Gap's horror it was more of a road map of the exact trail. I guess I should have saved that flour for the actual trail.

The runners started off towards River Bend for one long ass false trail, thanks to Drippy, they all followed accordingly. The walkers started towards Three Mile bend. Along the way we saw a fox, some drunks and some Hash house harrier runners who had a hard time following the trail as they cruised on by the check back! Then I jumped out from the bushes and sent them back on course.

The walkers enjoyed the view of the trails through the lovely, snowy enchanted forest where Wee reminded me of a run that we did back in the ol' days at Three Mile where we saw spotted coyotes (they may have been Dalmatians) that almost attacked him while I hid in the bushes. I have never claimed to be a hero! It was frightening, don't judge.

Over the hill we saw twinkly lights from the runners on trail and I was very happy to hear that they found the creek that was marked Jump!

The walk was very pretty and relaxing that I wanted to extend our walking time but they had a good nose for beer near and we decided it was time for a cold one.

The running hare, Drippy, I heard through the grape vine, was not so easily tempted by the alcohol and transfatty chips as I was. She made the runners do an extra lap around the whole park to earn their hashhold. Muahahahaha I like your style Drippy.

After the hashhold, some of us had to walk the 20 minute trek back to the circle up. Sorry guys. I'm still astonished I was not punished for this. A few gentlemen hashers wanted to make sure I knew the way back and didn't get lost so they got the warm and cozy express ride back to the start. For future punishments; Wee, Sir Cums & Chips... just putting this out there in the universe haha.

Lots of punishments were given out. Hymen who had to carry the shit, split the honor of the drink with Sir Cums. Slippery was punished for missing the check back and leading the harriers in the wrong direction.

Punishment alert! RDH3 now has a new shitty contraption for punishments it is called THE ASS HOLE. Nicole was lucky enough to be the first harriette to receive this item. It consists of a toilette bowl seat around your neck and a cup stuck to the toilette bowl lid. You have to somehow figure out the perfect angle and timing to close the lid up to your face and pour the beverage in to your mouth. It is creative and hilarious and I'm impressed and scared of what can happen when a few Brother Hashers get together with some beer. Great job Chips and Doggy.

ONON was at Sam's North. There was a fireplace, half priced bottles of wine and good food.

Thanks for all who made it out to ONON
