Sex Sells

Wonderful gathering for a run that just about didn't happen. I think we had about 16 out for this evening. Now Wet Denim is known as one of the most reliable hashers in our group but for some reason she forgot about her run. Saved by Premie and G-Spot, together they pulled off one hell of a run.

Now the peanut gallery was a little tough on Wet Denim. Words like “newbie” and “rookie” were bought up. Far from it, a very natural and acceptable mistake was made. Now we can speculate all day long but I think it was simply, sex on the mind. Hey, the average male thinks about sex every 2 minutes or 12 hours a day. That's a days work for Broken Boner. I can't comment on the average females thoughts, cause you are all so tight lipped, but I bet it is even more frequent that us men. Geez, that tight lipped comment there has kind of got my mind racing; I may have to pause...

Use it to your advantage like Wet Denim has and every one of your runs will be a home run. I am going to set a few guide lines for you that may yet to set a run or have performed poorly in the past.

- Setting a run should be a priority. It is as important as a birthday, first date, manscaping.

- You want people to cum to your run so make it exciting and irresistible. Lure them with fine beer and sensual treats at your hash hold.

- Know your hasher. Some cum all of the time, some haven't cum for a while, some don't cum at all. Be ready for the odd virgin or visitor. Treat them all like they are special, but honestly, you can fake that.

- Pick a great spot for your run. You might like bush or you might like it wide open and smooth. If you like it really rough, make sure everyone is wearing their rubber boots. Check for wet spots and avoid the crusty ones.

- Set a run that you would want to run. It can be long and hard or short and quick. You can't please everyone but really, in the end, as long as you are satisfied, that's all that counts.

- Take your time explaining the run to the group. Start slowly making sure your marks are in the right place. Slowly speed up and then hit them with a BN and finish with a HH. Now you have them in the palm of your hand.

- Get them started but stay in charge. I like to operate from behind, gives me more control. Hopefully they hit your false trails, there is nothing wrong with backing up, turning, and going a different direction. When you hear them screaming “ON ON”, you know you've hit the sweet spot.

- Oral support is encouraged and sometimes you will have to offer your hand. Poor Chips had no one to offer a hand when he was on his knees tonight.

- As they approach the Hash Hold, adrenalin will be pumping and their breathing will be out of control. Make sure they don't get there prematurely, you want them to feel the full impact of your bounty. Walkers sometimes cum early but that is due to over stimulation. Your goal is to get everyone to cum at the same time.

- Watch, their eyes will roll back when they finally put their lips to that cold beer. Good job my friend; you just hit a home run. Now I wouldn't try this first time, but next time go for multiple hash holds.

- Go easy on the way back to the circle up, knees and hips are sore. You have finally done it and a well deserved beer awaits you. Enjoy the erotic tales of your run as the hashers express their feelings. Hopefully you will hear of a wardrobe malfunction like that of Don't Know Dick's. A very specifically placed tear occurred and though I was behind her, I had nothing to do with it, Wee?! Enjoy your beer when you are called in, and remember, everyone swallows in the circle.

-P.S. Don't forget to grease our Pimp. Nibs, beer, or even a cheap compliment will do.

Off to the On On

Stay hard my friends. Doggy
