Location: Heritage Ranch

Prelube: Westlake Grill

On On: Toad & Turtle

What a beautiful night for a run....

The handful of us who made it to the prelube got to watch Curb and Boner play cards and then they didn't even bother to come on the run. Shame on them!

Circle up was called and names were shouted out with a welcome back to Amanda, markings were laid and then we were off. It didn't take long until headlamps were needed. Yes, you're right it was the first dark run of this hash year. I would say only about three people came prepared. Even Pucker Sucker (our running hare) had to run back to her car to grab the flashlight she forgot.

With lots of the usual male runners backing out because they were scared of what Pucker had in store for them, that only left Chips running with his harem. However, I didn't hear him complain once about it. I think he was excited to see what the night would hold for him once it was dark and he was in the woods with 6 women.

This run had running through the trees, down scary hills, hanging from ropes, leaping over lots of sharp boulders but most of all an amazing view. This definitely goes down for the prettiest run of the year.

Although we only saw the walkers at the circle up and the hash hold I hear they had a wonderful walk as well. They may have gotten lost but that just gave them more time to enjoy each other's company. It came to my attention that as soon as "beaver" was spotted on trail Blowin Hose went missing for the rest of the run. Man that guy has a one track mind.

Hash Hold was amazing as usual with lots of beer and chips and licorice. In no time On In was called so we went to sing some songs and have more beer.

Rewards were given out to Pucker and Deep for a lovely run and a welcome back drink for Amanda. Good to see her.

The punishments were given out to Cheap for whining, Deep for having an unusually long walking trail, Slippery for falling, (yes you did I have pictures ha ha) Sir cums for stretching, and our very own RA was punished for using wanker names!!!! Come on Cum Honor get your shit together.... Wait maybe this is your plan to get extra down downs every week... Good plan my friend, good plan.

Booty Call would have been punished as well but she decided to skip the circle up because she was late for her very own "Booty Call".....

P.S. And thank goodness that Crash did not make it to this run. I strongly believe that if he did he wouldn't have made it home.. Ha Ha
