Scribe 1

Run # - I don't recall

Location – yeah, don't remember that either

Hares – Cum Honour & Wet Spot

Scribe – apparently Sir Mobey's of Dickus, but I don't remember that either

My deep and heartfelt apologies to the hares, who set a wonderful run somewhere I do recall it had long straight stretches and we suspected it may have been set on a bicycle. And there was a hash hold that was probably great. And the On On was at JD's, which may have the best pub food in town.

Scribe 2

This time I remember being appointed scribe!

As always, Doggie and Chips set a fantastic run. Definitely the best run this month, quite possibly the best one this year.

We started at One Eleven for pre-lube, where we brought the dress code down and the pretty level up.

From there a short drive to the West Park Skate Shack. Or for me, a longer drive to the Oriole Park Skate Shack and then back to West Park.

It was a good crowd, including 2 virgins that Head First and Brent had brought out. Our RA, Cum Honour, was there on time and quickly took charge and circled us up. Trail markings were shown and Doggie threw Chips under the bus for everything that was bad about the run. Probably true.

A good crowd of runners – Humiditties, Drippy, Pucker, Slippery, Wet Spot, Cum Honour, Curb and I. With our fearless leader Chips, we followed the arrow and were off. It was a beautiful night for a run so I decided I would run much further than I had to, making sure to check the wrong way at each and every check. I guess somebody had to. Chips was a gracious hare, letting us find all of the false trails and checkbacks but giving a gentle point in the right direction when we behaved like lemmings and all went the wrong way. Some of the marks were deviously hidden behind garbage cans, which was very confusing to Slippery and I.

We got to play Frogger, crossing Taylor to visit the hospital grounds. Thankfully we needed no emergency visits.

Hashhold was eventually found in a convenient garage. We found the walkers comfortably seated on couches, partaking in the delicious cookies, cheezies and caramel popcorn. And beer and wine☺.

Circle up was close, where we were joined by Crash Test Rummy. Hares were rewarded, virgins were toasted and we celebrated a virgin birthday. Then off to the Farside to enjoy good drink and good food. It was strange to go in the Farside and not see Wrecked Anal and Blowstick.....

Knowing I was scribe, I made a point of polling all hashers during the evening to find out their New Year's resolutions. We will have to look back in a year and see how they did.....(I really hope I didn't miss anybody☺)

Doggy Style – bought subscription to GQ, will reduce plaid to 'only on weekends'

Chips A Whore – to be able to perform Dr. Evil little finger pose with a straight finger

Preemie – to get out of the house and travel a little more

Deep Throat – to quit all other commitments and show up at No B's jams every week

Pucker Sucker – to follow trail and never get lost

Dripping Wet Gap – to become "Batgirl" and stop crime everywhere instead of just at her house

Don't Know Dick – to know dick

Cum Liquor Snatch – to start running again because the runners miss her☺

Slippery When Wet – to become a beer connoisseur

Humiditties – to show up for the runs on cold nights as well

Head First – to stop smoking except after sex or hash runs

Brent – to get a hash name. And keep Head First at a pack a day habit.

Virgin 1 – to prove there is life after 40

Virgin 2 – to tolerate old people (over 40)

Curb Crawler – to stop going to Sam's North

Cum Honour – to be the greatest RA ever. Or at least in 2018.

Wet Spot – to visit Farside more often. Skool lernin is over r8ted.

Crash Test Rummy – to curl faster so he can come hashing

Sir Mobey's of Dickus – is perfect just the way he is☺
