Run #990– Feb. 22nd, 2018

Hare(s): Sir Mobey of Dickus & Dripping Wet Gap

Location: Entrance to McKenzie Trails

Prelube: Mr. Mikes

On On: Murphs

Scribe: Slippery When Wet

One way to get run of the year is to Hare every run.

Sir Mobey of Dickus was the hare this past Thursday yet again. It was a great run, with above -20 weather and a good crowd. I expected Broken Boner to be wearing shorts but the wind chill did dip below his -15 cut off point. Maybe next week we will get lucky. It is supposed to be -3 but snowing. I feel sorry for the hare setting the trail.

I do know that the run seemed to go around in circles. Everyone knows that all trees look the same in the dark. My flashlight crapped out a minute in so I just followed the crowd. There were lots of people running up and down hills that seemed to go nowhere. Sir Mobey said it took him three hours to set the trail but he enjoyed every minute of it. When you get old time seems to go by quicker.

Pucker Sucker seemed to find all the false trails and Chips A Whore spent most of his time playing in the deep snow. Some things never change.

Dripping Wet Gap forgot her name again and Wet Spot wore leggings with shear sides. No wonder she's always cold. She did take a short cut that sent her beyond the hash hold so she had plenty of time to warm up. It was a little strange to see her coming from the opposite direction when we arrived.

When we arrived at the hash hold the walkers were playing atop a hill like they had been there the entire time. I guess when the Hash is buying the beer everyone gets three! Cum Liquor Snatch was definitely tipsy when I got there. She couldn't even drink her punishment at circle up for fear of driving over the limit. Wee little Bladder was peeing his third time I am sure. Dripping Wet Gap swore she went up the hill but maybe she was talking of the snow hill they were playing on when the runners arrived.

Cum See My Box was trying to fly under the radar as I often do but I noticed and gave her a punishment for not coming out very often. When your job gets in the way of the hash one must consider the options. RDH3, or paying rent.

Humiditties found her fair share of the false trails as well. She is looking very svelte these days running circles around us all. Must be all those punishments she gives away.

Whore Sleigher graciously took the swill off my hands which I so appreciate. I couldn't stand disappointing someone each week. Now it's your turn Whore Sleigher. Just remember, the hashers are like Goldie Locks. The beer will be too cold for some too warm for others. You won't have enough of this or you'll have too much of that. (I'm the worst)

Cum Honour was very admirable during circle up and he accepted all kinds of punishments. Some he deserved, some he probably deserved at an early time but did not receive. It all works out in the end.

We had some unexpected visitors / stalkers at the OnOn. Dirty Pole, the lovely Flying Low and Nail Me were waiting for us when we arrived. It was a small group but our waitress was amazing as she remembered our drink and name from last time were in. Good times!
