Ghost Hare run!

Hashers who showed up to drink beer with the attempt to exercise:

Dont Know Dick, Chips a' Whore, Crash Test Rummy, Wee Lil Bladder, Humiditties, Hymen Trouble, Slippery When Wet, Whore Slayer, Broken Boner, Cum Honour, WetSpot and Deep Throat and Bubble Butt

Top Ten moments of the Ghost Hare run:

1: Slippery When Wet came prepared on this evening for all occasions; she was wearing green and a tutu as it was March 22nd and re-living the memory of St Patty's day.

2: The beautiful view atop the long treacherous incline where the walkers got to regroup and deliberate the week with many laughs.

3: Naomi, ditching the walkers, explored the woods on her own and thanks to Humiditties was not lost to the wolves. Chips also kindly lent her his gloves so there were no fingers lost.

4: What I love about my fellow hasher friends is they are always open to a challenge. Don't Know Dick had to pee yet again so I suggested that maybe she could try peeing and hitting the bullseye dot in the middle of the checking; with amazing precision it was a success! So in the future if she pees on you it is with intent as she is an expert.

5: Meeting our happy friend Lafayette Le Log from Louisiana. We of course had to stop and take selfies which he happily obliged. It brings me great joy as to the imaginative minds of the RDH3. To come up with such a sophisticated name for log with a happy face etched into it is a great reminder that it feels great to be silly and have a laugh.

6: “Sniff it before you lick it”, are wise words from Don't Know Dick. This relates to eating candy, drinking a beer and I'm sure many other facets of life. However, the only thing that ran through my head were the lyrics from 20 Fingers:

7: Crash Test Rummy and the wrongly marked check. Don't keep a good man from his cold beer. Who would be so sneaky as to mark a check in the wrong direction? I'm not sure which act is more punishable, the hasher marking the check falsely or the guy whining about it. I'm sure no one ever drowned in sweat.

8: Who would do such a sneaky act? The only man who would wear shorts on a chilly evening, the only man who would enjoy running 30 minutes longer for the fun and enjoyment of it, this man really needs to get a life.

9: Poor Cum Honour these days. It's more like broken honour, he showed up to the run with a big dildo finger from enjoying some cold beverages recently and then morphed into Bruce Lee and thought he could karate chop a piece of wood. Turns out he needs some serious Mr. Miyagi training before he tries that again.

10: I learned that Wee lil Bladder would rather go thirsty than drink cheap beer. I mentioned to him that it wouldn't hurt him to live outside his box a little to which he then scoffed and shook his head at me. I never realized he was such a beer snob. I think a new hash award should go to whoever can find the cheapest beer as that will separate the boys from men.

Punishments:

Naomi got punished for being the first person in history of the hash to lose the walkers

Whore Sleigher for not showing his team spirit attire. We then suggested that he could shop out of the haberdashery suit case for a new wardrobe.

Don't Know Dick got punished for having her Vagina out in public once again, thatta girl

Slippery got punished for still wearing green after St Pattys day was over but there is nothing wrong with wanting to celebrate the Irish on the regular.

Boner was punished for being overly ambitious and deceiving, due to his scantily clad attire, his penis was probably already numb therefore the extra 30 minutes would not faze him

Wee was punished for pissing and moaning about the hash hold beer however he felt that the ghost hare should have been the one to take the punishment for bringing shitty beer.

It was a wonderful evening with so many laughs a wonderful trail with wonderful people
