Hare Don't Know Dick

Scribe Slippery When Wet

It was an amazing trail this past Thursday. Almost too perfect. I mean, it was in the forest and the walkers and runners met up a lot and they finished at the same time like some cheesy porno. It's almost as if she had help. Professional help. I'm not talking about Boner either. I'm thinking.. AI. Artificial Intelligence.

So I thought if Don't Know can use AI to set a trail, I can use AI to write a scribe.

I put in some minor details and the names and let AI do the rest. See if you can tell what happened or who attended. It helps if you read it in a monotone voice.

The greasing done beforehand was a sad affair with only 4 athletes attending. Damaged Construction, Boom Boom Check Boozy and Road Sign were the only athletes. I said 4 because Sidewalk Creep was there in spirit only. He was not attending the athletic event. Blind Rooster was not in attendance. She was preparing the footsteps that would be taken.

The evening weatherwise was picture perfect. Blue sky was observed. No bugs were felt and there were a healthy amount of attendees. Fictional Whale was the leader and he led the circle. All the participants retold their names and Blind Rooster marked the marks of the footpath we would all be moving along.

Boom Boom and Damaged Construction took the footpath not chosen by the hare. The fishhook slowed Kissface Ninny, Fictional Whale, and RedNeck Vessel down so Road Sign and the lost athletes could catch up. When all the athletes were on the right path they entered the woods and hills. Bramble had no troubles on the path. She was on the path and liked the path.

The path was up up up and down down down. Boom Boom was fast. RedNeck was fast. Fictional, Road Sign, Damaged and Bramble kept up. Kissface found her own path. The athletes completed the path and found the slow ones who strolled the path. The end of the path had foodstuff and brew. The slow ones were; Blind Rooster, Sex Show, Snatch Phallus, Climb on, and Small Sac.

The discipline segment started after Fictional Whale said go back to path beginning. He brought a wheel of spinning misfortune. Athletes made a circle and spilled their drinks with toilet seats and black pipes. The athletes had fun. They continued on to Murphs Bar and Grill for the OnOn except for Boom Boom and Small Sac who went home to watch an athletic event.

The end.

The Master.
